Don't live with it, report it at this year's ASB roadshow

Residents concerned about anti-social behaviour will be able to receive advice first hand this week as the 2011 Tackling Anti-Social Behaviour Road Show rolls into town.

This year, Hackney Homes will be teaming up with Hackney Council and Hackney Police, and trained officers from all three organisations will be on hand to listen to the concerns of residents and offer help and advice. The events will also give residents the opportunity to report anti-social behaviour (ASB) and noise nuisance in confidence.

Residents are invited to attend the road shows regardless of whether they live on an estate or not, taking place at the times and venues listed below.
