

Press release
5 July 2011

Fun is the name of the game on Hackney Homes estate

Hundreds of residents from the Homerton area in Hackney let their hair down at a fun day recently on Frampton Park Estate.

Organised by the Management Executive South Hackney (MESH) who are the umbrella group for all residents groups in Homerton and Hackney Homes, the day was filled with lots of fun activities for the family.

Children played on the large bouncy castles, they were treated to sausage rolls and refreshments and everyone entered lots of prize draws on the day. The winner of the coveted Nintendo Wii was John Williams from Gascoyne 2 Estate who guessed the number of sweets in the jar.

Rupert Tyson MBE, Chair of Hackney Homes Board said: "What a great day for Homerton residents. The local residents clearly enjoyed themselves and the organisers from MESH should be congratulated".

Press Queries to Olaide Oyekanmi on 0208356 3522 or email olaide.oyekanmi@hackneyhomes.org.uk

Ends

Notes to Editors

- Additional images are available on request.