Gascoyne 2 Estate invites residents to a day of fun

Residents on the Gascoyne 2 Estate in Homerton are inviting all local people down to the estate on Saturday 16th July to have fun in the sun.

Organised by the Tenants and Residents Association, the day promises to be spectacular with bouncy castles, face painting, bingo, refreshments and much more.

John Williams, Chair of the Gascoyne 2 Tenants and Residents Association said: "We are looking forward to meeting as many residents as possible. This is a day to celebrate what is good about living here and meet your neighbours".
