Hackney Homes Open Day extravaganza

Hackney Homes' Leaseholders and Freeholders are invited to an open day special which will take place on 17 September 2011 at Hackney Free and Parochial School, Paragon Road from 12-4.30pm.

Residents can come along to talk to staff about services received; additional services available to them, receive financial advice and meet other leaseholders.

There will be fun activities on the day for the whole family including free massages, children's entertainment and the chance to win a brand new Gerda fire door worth £1,900. The front entrance door will be fitted free of charge for the winner.

Head of Leasehold and Right to Buy, Judith Morrison says "We provide continuous support and advice to our leaseholders and freeholders and have organised this event to encourage them to get additional information and support that they may require as well as giving them the opportunity to meet fellow leaseholders. We look forward to seeing many leaseholders and freeholders on the day."
