

Press release
28 March 2011

Hackney Homes focus on involvement up for three TPAS Awards

Hackney Homes work to get residents involved in all aspects of their housing has been recognised at the upcoming Tenant Participation Advisory Service (TPAS) Awards.

These awards, now in their fourth year, recognise tenants and providers efforts to improve people's lives.

The shortlisted entries are – Youth Engagement project (Best Practice in Youth Involvement Award), Coralie Francis (Tenant/resident Involvement Officer of the Year) and Gypsy & Traveller Floating Support (Best Practice in Supporting People Award), the Charlotte Graves, Chief Executive, Hackney Homes said: "It is fantastic to be shortlisted for three TPAS awards this year. Our residents tell us that they are pleased with the various ways in which we work to involve them and this is recognition of that."

Press queries to Olaide Oyekanmi on 020 8356 3522, or email olaide.oyekanmi@hackneyhomes.org.uk

Ends

Notes to Editors

- Hackney Homes is an arms-length management organisation managing around 30,000 council properties in the borough of Hackney.
- TPAS is one of the longest-serving tenant organisations in Europe with over 20 years experience informing and supporting tenant and landlord members to challenge, influence and control how their housing services should be delivered. The winners will be announced on Friday 6 May.