Hackney Homes swap orange for red for Comic Relief

Hackney Homes' orange was swapped for red last Friday as staff raised over £400 for Comic Relief.

Lots of activities took place on the day to raise money for the charity including Wear Red for the Day, Sponsored Silence and Bingo.

Neil Isaac, Director of Finance and Resources said: "Every year, our staff take the time to raise money for well known charities and this year was one of the most successful".
