Job well done for Hackney Homes estate cleaner

Hackney Homes' estate cleaner, Eyoun Clarke, has become the talk of the town after receiving high praise from residents in Lister Court, Stoke Newington for the pristine cleanliness to their block.

The resident expressed their thanks and gave recognition for the good work of cleaner after witnessing the impressive job he was doing and for his dedication to keeping the block clean and safe.

52 year old, Eyoun Clarke has worked on Hackney estates for over 10 years and said "It is nice that my work is appreciated. I take extreme pride in my job and always work hard so that residents can have clean communal areas and feel proud to live in Hackney"

Jim Paterson, Hackney Homes Head of Building Maintenance said "We are very proud of the excellent work that Eyoun and the rest of our estate cleaners do daily to ensure that our estates are well maintained and a quality service is provided to our residents."
