Free debt advice workshops for Hackney Homes residents

Debt puts a lot of strain on you and the people around you. That is why Hackney Homes is offering all residents an opportunity to attend a debt advice workshop to help you manage your money.

All residents who attend will get information and advice on:

- How to budgeting for priorities
- Sticking to a budget
- Options for paying back your debt
- Dealing with debt.

If you are having problems paying your rent, we can also arrange a free confidential session with an independent debt and money advisor.

Neehara Wijeyesekera, Hackney Homes, Interim Head of Resident Services said: "Supporting our residents through difficult times is a key priority for Hackney Homes and that is why we have organised these workshops to provide vital information to residents".

Residents interested in attending should call 0208 356 7545 or email getinvolved@hackneyhomes.org.uk
