Summer of fun for Hackney Homes estates

We can't guarantee sun, but there will be fun, fun and more fun on the agenda this summer across Hackney's estates. Hackney Homes will host five fun days this July and August for all residents to come along with the whole family.

The first fun day will be on Sunday 29 July on the Wrens Park Estate kicking off at midday. There will be activities for residents of all ages including face painting and bouncy castles for the little ones, a football tournament and street dance lessons for the teenagers and dominoes and a tea corner for the adults.

The fun days will be an opportunity for residents to speak directly to staff about the improvements being made to homes across the Borough. Residents can also ask questions about how to get involved and give their opinions about what they would like to see improved on their estates.

Food and drinks will be provided for free and a sizzling barbeque should be a welcome treat.

The fun days will take place at the following venues:

Sunday 29th July – 12pm to 4pm
Wrens Park Estate, North East E5

Thursday 2nd August – 3pm to 7pm
Forsyth House, Frampton Park Estate, Homerton E9

Saturday 4th August – 12pm to 4pm
Royal Oak Court, Shoreditch E2

Sunday 5th August – 12pm to 4pm
Queen Elizabeth Close, Stoke Newington, N16

Sunday 12th August – 12pm to 4pm
Scriven Court, Acton Estate, Queensbridge and De Beauvoir, E8

Ends
