

Press release

19th March 2010

Hackney Homes wants your views on equality and diversity

Hackney Homes Single Equality Scheme sets out our approach and commitment to ensuring that equality and diversity is at the very core of our organisation and we want your views.

This scheme is a plan of action to make things fair for everyone. The scheme takes on board the seven equality strands: age, disability, race/ ethnicity, gender, gender reassignment, religion/ belief and sexual orientation.

We would like to hear your views and welcome any comments that you have on the scheme. The scheme and a consultation form are available to read via the Hackney Homes website www.hackneyhomes.org.uk

If you have any further queries please do not hesitate to contact Service Development Team on 020 8356 5147.

Notes to Editors

- Hackney Homes is an arms-length management organisation managing around 30,000 council properties in the borough of Hackney.