

Press release

4th March 2010

New kitchen brings a smile to the faces of Hackney veteran

Deputy Mayor of Hackney, Cllr Alcock visited Hackney residents Mr and Mrs Liddle recently to see their brand new Decent Homes kitchen.

Living in Hackney for over 53 years, the couple have seen the borough improve in many ways. Mr Liddle said: "We moved into this flat in the 50's and we love living here. Our new kitchen makes the place even nicer now".

Deputy Mayor, Cllr Alcock said: "It is good to see how these refurbishments can have such a positive impact on the lives of residents."

Notes to Editors

- Hackney Homes is an arms-length management organisation managing around 30,000 council properties in the borough of Hackney.