

Press release

4th March 2010

Green jobs on offer on Hackney Homes estates

Hackney Homes is boosting work to make our estates cleaner and greener by recruiting more cleaners and gardeners.

Jobs for cleaners, gardeners and even a horticultural development officer are on offer. Applications are now open via the Hackney Homes website www.hackneyhomes.org.uk Everyone is welcome to apply.

Christophe Tabi, Interim Head of Estate Environment Services in Hackney Homes said: "Just walking through the estates in Hackney, you can see that we are making massive improvements to the environment. We want to continue these improvements and that is why we are boosting our workforce".
